

Choir and Band at Helden von Morgen

On November the 19th the choir and band group went to the "ORF-Zentrum" in Vienna. When we arrived there, we had a backstage tour. We saw different studios (Lotto 6 aus 45, Sport am Sonntag, Brieflos, Orientierung) and learned that not every program has its own studio, they have to share them. The crazy thing was, that we saw one Held earlier. Massimo Shena, the rapper, was phoning when we saw him, he waved to us. We also were in a bluebox, which was very funny. Daria was a weather witch, Max a woman and Tatjana picked Brad Pitt's nose.

After one hour we went to the dress rehearsal of Helden von Morgen. We saw that the studio isn't as big as we thought, because television makes everything look bigger, higher and fatter. The show was great and it was much better to be there live.

After the show the heroes held an autograph session. It was a really crowded there, but some of us snatched autographs from Julian, Massimo, Lukas and Katharina.

All in all, it was a great day and besides we weren't at school! I'm very happy that we went there!

Pia Hofstätter